Local Offroad Racing Team gets set to take on the Legendary BAJA 1000 to raise money for The Vancouver Firefighters Charitable Society and Firefighters With out Borders

On Friday November 21 2009 YOLO RACING, a Vancouver based Offroad racing team will begin there attack on the 42nd Running of the TECATE-SCORE BAJA 1000. The legendary BAJA 1000 attracts race teams from around the world. Held annually on the treacherous and unforgiving Baja California of Mexico this world famous desert race has 27 classes with 350-400 entries from 30 States and a dozen countries. The grueling course runs through villages along the peninsula luring over 200,000 spectators. Little more than half of the racers finish this incredible "test of man and machine" where anything can happen. Budgets for the race teams vary from thousands of dollars to millions of dollars. Each team follows the same rule "In order to finish first you must first finish, never ever give up".

YOLO Racing is a team of Vancouver Firefighters and friends. By way of a Drive-a-thon they will be raising money for two great charities, the Vancouver Firefighters Charitable Society and Firefighters without borders
